To Mr. Westmeyer

In appreciation for the guidance and consideration you have given us in our years at Uni High.

The Senior Class
FACULTY
DAVID M. JACKSON, Principal

ROBERT G. CARLIER, Vice-Principal
This book represents large amounts of work done in competition with such other activities as studies, music, dramatics, sports, and clubs, in order that we might have a record of the 1957-58 school year which we can keep. We are most grateful to the U'n I staff and sponsors for their devotion to this project. As we look at this book for the first time, and many times again through the coming years, we will remember their contribution.

I am happy to welcome all of you to these pages, especially those whose wheels of progress are carrying you into larger fields of scholarship and citizenship. As you study and participate in active roles in the affairs of the family, the community, the nation and the world, we hope you will find your experiences in University High School to have been useful and challenging in the tradition of liberal education.

Sincerely yours

David M. Jackson

CLASS WILL

"Being of sound mind and. . .

To the Juniors, we leave Mrs. Riva, and also our wishes of good luck...

To the Sophomores, we leave all of our extracurricular activities, plus 100 bottles of aspirin.

To the Freshmen, we leave the notes on our locker doors.

To the Subs, we leave a word of advice:
quit while you're ahead.

I, Adrienna Arnold, leave my reams of PAD notes to George Merritt.

I, Bill Bardeen, leave my polite, quiet ways to Judy Mann.

I, Jim Buckley, leave my singing ability to Cathy Sterrett.

I, Pete Carlston, leave my gazelle-like basketball techniques to John Downs.

Mary Lou Caughron has already left early, dragging behind a strange man.

I, Stu Cohn, leave before the bill has to be paid.

I, Arlander Clayton, leave my excellent diction, fine vocabulary and way with the English language to Miss Leppert.

I, Marti Cleary, leave my ideas on sex to Chris Vestling.

I, Mike Day, leave my gift of the gab and wonderful ad-libs to Wally Phillips.

I, Jim Dornoff, leave my fifty original foreign languages to Nathan Leopold.

I, AnnaMary Hays, leave my ability to injure myself to next year's star athlete.

I, Barbara Hutchens leave my pony tail to Orchesis for its concert next year.

I, Jim Jackobs, leave my brains to April Smith.

I, Marcia Kaplan, leave Gargoyle, Carnival, and Yearbook to Clara Derber -- she says she wants them!

I, Virginia Lennox, leave my boy problems to Kay Karraker, who doesn't need them.

I, Gene Lewis, leave my wardrobe, especially my turned-up collars, to Mrs. Riva.

I, Claire Manning, leave my ability to make funny faces to Mrs. Riva.

I, Nancy Moore, leave my bird-like appetite to Judi Shattuck.

I, Marcia Murphy, leave my famous schedule of light classes to Jack Seitz.

I, Mary Murphy, leave my famous laugh and morbid sense of humor to the subs -- they'll need them.

I, Dick Osborn, leave my pleasing personality and willingness to help everybody to my brother, Tom.

I, Dave Rawcliffe, leave my white letter sweater to next year's basketball captain.

I, Jim Rogers, leave my hair-do to Terry Smith, who seems to look good in that style!

I, Peggy Rose, leave my unquenchable curiosity to anyone taking chemistry. I thought Mr. Westmeyer would appreciate that!

I, Charlotte Tate, leave George to the Sophomore girls -- there's more to an education than what you read in books!

I, Marty Vestling, leave my amazing co-ordination, speed, and skill to next year's basketball team -- one year too late.

I, Johnny Von Foerster, leave my curly head of hair to Janis Birkeland. I don't want it.

I, Tommy Von Foerster, leave my vast collection of unrelated facts to Mrs. Riva, for use in her class next year.

I, George Will, leave my cheerful attitude towards people to Dave Williams.

I, Monika Nestler, leave my accent to Miss Changoon.
CLASS PROPHECY

Adrienne Arnold is sweeping through the art world -- she's a janitor at the Art Institute.

Bill Bardeen is 5th man in a 4-man Ferrari racing team.

Jim Buckley was last seen riding elevators in Merrill, Pierce, Fenner and Beane.

PeteCarlston is a ballet dancer with the Moroccan eye-filling show.

Mary Lou Caughron is still gone.

Stu Cohn is teaching parallel parking in a driver's training course.

Arlander Clayton is one of the country's foremost weather forecasters -- he has just replaced Miss Monitor.

Marti Cleary is now an active member of the Girl Scouts, Campfire Girls, and the WCTU, and is now campaigning for passage of a 9:00 curfew.

Mike Day is running a charm school.

Jim Dornoff is singing the national anthem throughout the country in stadiums without P.A. systems.

AnnaMary Hays has finally realized her life-long dream -- she's bat boy for the Illinois Baseball team.

Barbara Hutchens has just graduated first in her class from the Kalamazoo Institute of Learning, majoring in snake charming.

Jim Jackobs is rivaling Elvis, Ricky, and the Everly Bros. in the Rock and Roll field.

Marcia Kaplan has finally crossed the thin little line -- she was last seen tossing more yearbooks on a bonfire, with a delighted grin on her face.

Virginia Lenox is testing mattresses in Lewis's main display window.

Gene Lewis has just beaten Kruschev in a rousing game of chess and has started the third world war.

Claire Manning is a successful jockey at Hialeah.

Nancy Moore is now giggling professionally at beer parties everywhere.

Marcia Murphy is now on the Uni High staff, trimming bulletin board for money.

We've been trying to drag Mary Murphy out of room 104. She's still arguing with George in a Finance meeting.

Monika Nestler is becoming Americanized -- she has just bought an Elvis album.

Dick Osborn was asked three years ago to speak for the Elks Club, and they're still trying to get him out.

Dave Rawcliffe is no longer with us -- that last basketball game was just too much for the poor boy.

Jim Rogers has finally cleared his kennels of his dogs, and has started boarding girls -- purebreds, no less!

Peggy Rose is the housemother for the Betas.

Charlotte Tate is now taking money for things she gave out free in high school -- she is now a professional marriage counselor.

Marty Vestling is still putting out her eight-page Gargoyle.

Johnny Von Foerster is now giving guided tours through the steam tunnels.

Tommy Von Foerster has replaced Mrs. Vance as Uni's dance teacher. He specializes in the stroll.

George Will is still recovering from a hangover -- the Cubs just won the series.
"It's Cold!"

"What, me worry?"

(names in ad section)

"No, no, a thousand times NO!"

"See my new trike?"

"I'm ready!"

"Some people"

"Oh, you're so silly!"

"Wanta Drag?"

"Aye, aye, captain!"

"We're the three musketeers!"

"Wonder who that new boy is!"

ACTIVITIES
The officers of Student Council are Marti Cleary, President; Mary Murphy, Vice-President; Marcia Tuckey, Secretary, and George Will, Treasurer.

The council has completed a number of successful projects this year. Among these projects were the installation of the milk machine and the purchasing of a flag for the gym. Another honor study hall was established and the regulations were revised. One of the nicest school dances was the Care Dance, which was not only a lot of fun, but raised $40.73. This money was sent to India.

Student Council also revised their constitution, which included allowing the sub-freshman class equal representation. Marti Cleary was convention Secretary for the IASC Convention, which Uni High sponsored in Chicago.

MEDIEVAL

On October 5 at 6:00 P.M., Uni’s most successful carnival, Medieval Madness commenced. Uni High, transformed into a magnificent castle with each floor representing a different phase of medieval life, looked festive and gay. The first floor, decked out in balloons and crepe paper, became a medieval festival, the second floor an old-fashioned shopping street, and the third a dark and gloomy dungeon of old.

Several new things were done this year. A surprise concession, "IT" and a ear bash-in concession were added. A delightful Big Show was held on the bleachers of the gym, and delicious dinners were served in Tudor Inn. At 11:00 p.m., a group of weary students turned the lovely castle back into a school.

All and all the carnival netted $639.69, a new high.

UNIQUE

These are the Unique Officers

Mrs. Riva ................ Sponsor
Nadine Taub ................ Editor
Ford Doolittle ............... Assistant Editor
Linda Newmark .............. Secretary
Barbara Cronbach ............ Treasurer

Members of the Unique staff, aided by contributions from the student body, put out four good issues this year.
Dick Osborn, Jim Rogers, and Paul Dyson, the members of Camera Club.

FIRST ROW: Clara Derber, Treasurer; Martha Vestling, President; Peggy Rose, Vice-President; Anna Mary Hays, Secretary. SECOND ROW: Judy Mann, Sophomore Representative; Caroline Lanham, Intramural Manager; and Janis Birkland, Sub Representative. Absent, Carol Hunt, Freshman Representative.

G. A. A.

G.A.A. started the year off right with the annual Big-little sister picnic being held in the gym because of weather conditions. Despite the unpleasant surroundings the picnic was very well attended. As part of the regular activities there were intramurals held every Tuesday and Wednesdays. G.A.A. also sponsored an inter-class basketball tournament; the final game was played between the Seniors and Sophomores. This year for the first time G.A.A. points were given for participation in N.H.R.P. activities. The annual “Star Dance” was the 8th of March and was a huge success. G. A.A. wound up the year’s activities the last week in May with the annual spring picnic.
ORCHESIS

ORCHESIS, headed by a board consisting of Nini Taub as President, Susan Levin as Secretary, Bess Winakor as Treasurer, Linda Newmark as Publicity Chairman, Ann Shipley as Wardrobe Mistress, and Mrs. Vance, our Sponsor, has been quite active this year. Two special work-shops were held to encourage compositions for the concert, which was held on February 21. The concert, itself, was the climax of much hard work on the part of all the members.
Headed by Mary Murphy, President; Judy Shattuck, Vice-President; Peggy Rose, Secretary; and Julie Johnson, Treasurer, the group was very active. A show was given in the spring. Miss Lindsay was the new Sponsor.

FIRST ROW, Left to Right: Mr. Schuetz, Charlotte Tate, Linda Newmark, Ann Shipley, Judi Shattuck, Bess Winakor, Eve Heindrick, Nancy Moore, Marylou Caughron, Anna Mary Hays. SECOND ROW: Caroline Lanham, Mary Murphy, Marcia Tuckey, Marge Gaylord, Mary Heller, Suzanne Philippson, Susie Levin, Betty White and Claire Manning.

The Girls' Chorus, directed by Mr. Schuetz meets Monday, Wednesday, and Friday. It serves at least two functions. In the first semester, its personnel is largely underclass girls. Here, the younger voices have an opportunity for special attention. During the operetta season, the chorus is joined by those students who are not in the operetta. At this time, the group focuses its attention on the music for the music festival, which will be produced in April.

Its officers are:

Norma Parker .................. President
Karen Hinshaw .................. Secretary
Caroline Lennox ................. Librarian
Marynel Young .................. Librarian
Heather Bruce .................. Accompanist
Christine Anderson .............. Accompanist

During the operetta season Kathy Rawcliffe and Leslie Dunlap served as accompanists for the operetta.

FRONT ROW: Marcia Kaplan, Marty Vestling, Charlotte Tate, Betty White, Mary Murphy, Judi Shattuck, Chris Vestling, Nancy Prosser, Janet Fairbanks, Susan Black, Judy Buddeimeier, Jackie Yates, Lesley Dunlap, Jean Gammil, Carol Hunt.

ATHLETICS
CHEERLEADERS

This year's Cheerleaders performed in new uniforms. Under the leadership of Marcia Kaplan, head cheerleader, and Mrs. Vance, sponsor, the girls devised many new formations. They also sponsored station wagons to all the out-of-town games and usually had a good crowd to cheer with them. In spite of the poor season, there was always a lot of spirit.
This year's U Club, under the leadership of George Will, president, sponsored the annual U Club Dance January 30. They also took tickets at home games. The other officers were: secretary, Terry Smith; treasurer, Dave Rawcliffe.
Uni's basketball team was late in coming around this year, ending the season with a 2-16 record. However the record doesn't tell half the story. The team started the season with no lettermen and only one player, Captain Bill Bardeen, having any varsity experience. Coach Wells used Bardeen, Joe Miles, Dave Rawcliffe, Jim Hendricks, and Roger Warner as his starting five during the early part of the season. Uni took it's first win from Ogden, with a 45-40 score, the first of February. At this point in the season Coach started to vary his first five, giving seniors Stu Cohn, George Will and Pete Carlston a crack at the starting positions. Uni's second win also came at the hands of the Ogden five, this time by a score of 62-57.

Next year's squad will have Juniors Miles, Hendricks, Willard Speigleman, Bruce Shurts, Mike Kirtley and John Wood and Sophomore Roger Warner returning.
JUNIOR VARSITY

The reserve team came through the season with a little better record than the varsity, winning 3 games and losing 15. The purpose of the reserve system is to provide experience, and this year's team got a lot of it. Their schedule of games included several close games, including an overtime victory at St. Joe and several losses to teams such as Unity.

Coach Carlier used Ambrose Richardson, Lee Snyder, and John Schacht as his front line, with Billy Hays alternating at the other position. All were Sophomores with the exception of Derber, a Freshman, and Hays, a Junior. There were only three Juniors on the squad, Hays, Terry Smith, and Tony Carter.
HEAVY-WEIGHTS

LIGHT-WEIGHTS

CROSS-COUNTRY

Lettermen George Will and John Clayton provided the nucleus for this year's team which was unsuccessful in all seven starts. However since the main part of the team was made up of underclassmen the participation should prove valuable in the coming years.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

3. The teachers held a mass meeting to decide how best to control us.
4. As I entered the door to start my last year at Uni, I heard the familiar cries of "What does this say?", "There isn't any such room!" and "Did I have a ball?" Someone called to me and I turned too quickly and tripped over one of those fifty subs. That's what you call starting the year off right!
6. The Howdy Hop was its usual success. A few members of the basketball team were practicing shots from the new, widened free-throw lanes, but not for long - boys are scarce this year.
9. The milk machine was finally installed today and already people have learned how to get the most milk for three cents. The G.A.A. picnic was held in the Gym on account of rain. After reading past yearbook calendars, I knew we should have counted on rain, but some people never learn.
8-13. Everything is starting this week: G.A.A. Orchesis, Dramatics, Cross Country, Gargoyle, Yearbook, Student Council, Science Club, and I don't know what all else. You should see some of these poor people (especially us Seniors) trying to get to everything at once. Teachers are also getting off to a good start with the inevitable homework.
17. G.A.A. started soccer intramurals today. While playing we watched the Cross-Country team WALK around the track. That, I'll never understand.
19. The first Class Meetings - I'm glad they're over, George Will had an excellent suggestion - no final exams for Seniors. A motion to this effect passed unanimously.
21. Terrapin started at 8:00 A.M. this morning. What an unearthly hour!
24. The cast of the fall play, THE INNOCENTS, was announced today. Congratulations you six.
25. The Seniors were victorious in the Junior - Senior touch football game. After seeing the bruises I'm not sure it was touch football.
28. Another joyous hop! This time sponsored by the Sophomores.
30. Here comes Carnival week. Central Planning Committee has been planning for Carnival all summer and yet, I still don't see how everything can be finished by Saturday night. Well, here goes nothing.
OCTOBER

1. Well, that's one Cross-Country meet down. We lost 40 to 18 to Unity. I learned from past yearbooks that you win by getting less points than your opponent.

3. Have you seen the authentic Olive branch Petition in the Library? You have, and think we should get more documents? Time out for a suppressed giggle from the First Hour History Class.

5. Carnival night: Big Show in bleachers, Car Bash-in, Cake Crusades, Serf Sale, Fudal Fishing, and clean-up. This year's carnival was a big success. (Just Ask Nini.)

10-11 Faculty Workshop. Two whole days for relaxation (for us). Don't you pity those poor teachers? Don't answer.

14-18 It's hard to write a calendar with things cancelled because about half the school is out with Asian Flu. I must say Mr. Wells teaches very interesting French classes.

22. Seniors took National Merit Exams. Did she kill him or not? Ask our five winners. They won't know who they are until December, but I'll forget to mention them in the Calendar then, so congratulations.

24. After discussing the possibility of holding the Christmas Concert in an airplane, the Chorus Officers decided to give the play "Why the Chimes Rang."

28. We are slowly recovering as the flu hits Champaign and Urbana High. Now, I've got to tell you this joke. There was a Chinese merchant, headed back for Hong Kong, who missed his boat in San Francisco. It wasn't too bad, though. The Asian flew. Don't hit me!

31. Dave Trebilcock gets his thrills these days by introducing people to Susie, his pet tarantula, and then a little later coming up to you and saying "Have you seen Susie; she got out." At this point you feel something crawling up your back and scream as Dave and his accomplice go off laughing. Cross Country is over. Gosh darn, I wish you read those scores the other way. Just think, we would have won all those meets!
7. Play committees are hard at work. They are building sets, printing programs and selling tickets at a great rate along with the concentrated rehearsal of the cast members to make THE INNOCENTS a top-notch play.

8. Hear ye! Team meeting in the Gym. We all assembled to be informed on topics every University High School student should know something about. Marge Gaylord presented blown-up charts and we learned that Carnival made over six-hundred dollars this year.

9. The Tri-High Dance was held today in the English Building. I've been told Charlotte made a beautiful queen. The place was so mobbed that I never did get to see her, but I'll believe it. There's one thing I'm going to remember about that dance -- cloakroom duty. Someone should put some of the Uni High geniuses to work inventing a more workable system for finding coats. I'm glad I'm not going to be around for Uni's next stab at this horrible job. Everyone seemed to have fun afterward; a carload even took a little jaunt to Philo.

13. At 2:45 we all tramped over to the Old Men's Gym to see an assembly put on by Charlie Pond's people and featuring our own Gary Chamberlain who is a marvelous tumbler.

15. As common expression has it, "the yellow plague strikes again!" I'm going to study every minute and get straight 5's -- next time!!

16. THE INNOCENTS. The cast was excellent, the work of the crews evident and the play a thriller. Afterwards everyone relaxed with copies of Pogo at the Shattuck's. The Y.C.C.I Conference in Shelbyville discussed "The World of Tomorrow; Where Do I Fit In?" The next week pictures from the conference were featured Close-Up on WCIA - celebrities!

22. The Cheerleaders got their new outfits just in time for the first game. It was against Homer, here, and we lost. But the Seniors sponsored the after-game hop which was excellent (ask us).

26. Thanksgiving Vacation! Yummee! I thought it would never get here,
DECEMBER

1. This is the final deadline. All Seniors must turn their pictures in today or they will not be in the Yearbook. It doesn’t bother the Yearbook Staff that this is Sunday!

8. We gave “Why the Chimes Rang” today. We were all told beforehand that if something went wrong and the chimes didn’t ring we were to sit quietly and not to laugh or show that anything was wrong. That would have been hard to do, and thank goodness we didn’t have to. Everything came off without a hitch, providing short, but very enjoyable entertainment, for the audience.

12. A welcome break - faculty meeting at 2:15.

13. Go to the Care Dance “if you care enough to send the very best.” The dance made $41 from the admission charge and the sale of soft drinks to go to Care. People seemed to enjoy the entertainment, and the games, which were directed by a specialist from the University, and, of course, there was dancing afterwards.

19. The French and German classes went caroling at Burnham tonight. The only trouble was that it poured the whole time, but this meant refreshments all the sooner, so, except for the die-hard singer, everyone was happy.

20. The last day before Christmas Vacation was full of interesting happenings. It was Bermuda Day, printed Gargoyles came out, the annual surprise party, and the Christmas Dance was held in the Union that night. And vacation too!

23. The rehash of the Mikado was a riot. (literally) There were numerous changes in the script to keep the audience and actors in hysterics the whole time. Remember the three OLD maids from Boston, the Mikado in a Santa Claus suit which was causing him some trouble, Koko’s garters, and a liberal sprinkling of shaving cream.

25. What day is it today?
JANUARY

1. Recovering. Those New Year's Eve parties were loads of fun, but the next day—homework too!

2. Back to school. Wild rumors are circulating, but, as Mrs. Vance says, "Mr. Richey married a girl from his home town." Well, we tried!

8. There's a little saying—I guess that's what you call it—going around these days. One person comes up to another who knows the thing and they have this little conversation for the benefit of spectators.
   - Do you know Joe Penna?
   - What's his name?
   - Who?
   - Joe Penna.
   - No, never heard of him.

11. Some of us Seniors took the Scholastic Aptitude test this morning. We wondered afterwards if they thought our minds would function better if it was cold. It was freezing in there and those tiny armrests to write on—what a test tool! I don't advise next year's Seniors to go to slumber parties the night before either.

14. For the second time in as many meetings Science Club has new officers. The wear and tear must be awfully great.

17. Miss Leppert's PAD class took a field trip to Chicago. Merrill, Lynch, Pierce, Fenner and Beane will never be the same again.

22. The Subs finally got their second representative, and you know the school hasn't collapsed yet.

27. Semester exams began. What can I say about them? They're easy if you know the stuff they say the teachers. But the catch is, who knows it?

30. The U-Club dance came off as scheduled. The decorations were really unique—tables with wine bottles in them on them. (In them on them, that doesn't sound quite right) What I meant was—oh well, skip it. You know the dance was terrific—I have a U-Club member watching this; that's why it was so good. Really, it was fun.
FEBRUARY

1. We won a basketball game! Wonder of wonders -- and Ogden, too. They had an eight and eight record and ours was ten and zero, and we beat them.

10. Progress reports. (No comment)

14. Mr. Cox was in a head on collision in Indiana today. A lot of girls are going to miss him.

15. Some hardy souls froze collecting money for the Block of Dimes this week-end from unresponsive people. We made $106 though, and that will certainly help the cause.

18. Juniors and Seniors took the Constitution exam for the first two periods this morning. You have to pass it to get out of high school, and right now I think I'll be seeing you all next year. Maybe I can write a better calendar having had some experience by then.

21. There was a big turn-out for the Orchesis Concert tonight. This was helped along by Miss Lindsay and Mrs. Vance who required the Sub and Freshmen girls to be there and even took roll at the door. The concert was one of the best ever and the $29 which was taken in added to its success. So there Finance Committee!

Uni beat Ogden again tonight and Ogden is supposed to be pretty good. I wonder why we don't schedule games with some of the teams Ogden plays.

22. The Tri-High Stunt Show made over $300 for the mental health tonight. I can't say too much about it -- lots of chorus lines, but, I don't care for them. Uni's acts were terrific and three of them, SWEET GEORGIA BROWN, THE GREAT PRETENDER, and AMARYLLIS, were selected to perform at Chanute.

25. There was an assembly today featuring our Tri-High acts. I wasn't there, but I've been told that Mr. Wells told some of the jokes he tells the basketball team on the way to games. (Hmmmml)

MARCH

1. Yearbook layouts have to be in the mail by five o'clock tonight, so from here on out this calendar is all guess work. We play Mahomet here tonight. There's a hop afterwards and please, please make it a victory hop.

3. There's a Faculty - Varsity basketball game today. The calendar in the office (that's where I'm getting the information for this calendar - I'm not reduced to inventing it yet) says 2:15. Maybe we get out early!

7. The Biology classes went to Chicago today. I know what has happened in past years, but I'll let them make their own history.

8. Here's hoping the Star Dance was a success. There should have been decorations, refreshments, and all the other attributes of a successful dance, but at this point I'm not at all sure there were.
15. College Boards. Do I dread them!
18. Faculty meeting at 2:15.

APRIL

2. Spring vacation begins. Hallelujah!
4 & 5. The Terrapin show was excellent. (Says a loyal member.) It featured different dances, in the water, and ended with a terrific Bunny Hop.
7. Back to school. That vacation was much too short.
11. Third quarter progress reports. Ugh!
12. The Sophomores gave a well-attended and all-around terrific Spring Fling.
15. Another Faculty meeting. School gets out at 2:15.
24. The Tri-High Chorus set out at three in the morning to sing in Chicago.
27. The Orchestra concert came off without any noticeable mistakes.

MAY

5. We heard a concert by the North Shore Country Day School Choir second hour. It was excellent; that’s where Mr. Jackson came from.
17. The Junior - Senior Prom was the best dance of the year, the combo was superb, and the parties afterwards loads of fun.
20. Another faculty meeting at 2:15.
23. The Seniors clearly demonstrated that the Juniors were unworthy of running the school next year.
30. Memorial Day. No school!

JUNE

1. Baccaluareate. Finally it’s our turn.
2, 3 & 4. Final exams. By this time we should all know where we’re going to college and final exams shouldn’t be a thing of terror. I’ll love just for once to take exams and know that they aren’t the determining factor in anything.
6. Commencement. We finally made it. And now I guess I should end this calendar. I’ve really enjoyed writing it. It sure will be strange not having to get up in time to make it to History on time. Now on to college!
