The Class of 1973 Dedicates This Yearbook to Mr. Dirks

Doug Dirks—
As a token of forgiveness for your early morning jokes. Thank you for being an understanding human being.
... and Mrs. Hesse

Mama Muriel—
From your children. And thanks for the credits!

Guidance

If you do things merely because you think some other fool expects you to do them because he thinks you expect him to expect you to do them, it will end in everybody doing what nobody wants to do, which, in my opinion, is a silly state of things.

On Teaching

No man can reveal to you aught
But that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.
The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple,
among his followers,
Gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith
and his lovingness.
If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom,
But rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.
The astronomer may speak to you of his understanding of space,
But he can not give you his understanding—
The musician may sing to you of the rhythm which is in all space,
But he can not give you the ear which arrests the rhythm nor the voice that echoes it.
And he who is versed in the science of numbers can tell of the regions of weights and measures,
But he can not conduct you thither.
For the vision of one man lends not its wings to another man.
And even as each one of you stands alone in God's knowledge,
So much each one of you be alone in his knowledge of God.
And in his understanding of the earth.

—Kahlil Gibran
On Children

Your children are not your children,
They are the sons and daughters of lifes longing for itself.
They come through you but not from you,
And though they are with you yet they belong not to you.
You may give them your love, but not your thoughts,
For they have their own thoughts.
You may house their bodies, but not their souls,
For their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow,
Which you can not visit, not even in your dreams.
You may strive to be like them,
But seek not to make them like you,
For life goes not backwards nor tarries with yesterday.
You are the bows from which your children as living arrows are sent forth.
The archer sees the mark upon the path of the infinite,
And he bends you with his might that his arrows may go swift and strong.
Let your bending in the archer's hand be for gladness,
For even as he loves the arrows that fly,
So also he loves the bows that are stable.
—Kahlil Gibran

ORGANIZATIONS
Student Council

This year Student Council was getting together and working as a unified group. Decisions were made by mutual consent without the usual formalities. The president, Amber Barnhart, formed a series of workshops where the council broke up into smaller discussion groups.

Lounge

Lounge Committee got off to a slow start this year in getting organized. They fought a year round battle in trying to save the old furniture, as well as the new furniture from the total destruction.

Bulletin Boards

Run into a poster lately? You can tell it's from Uni if there's a KK in the corner. KK standing for Kathy Klock, the chairman of the Bulletin Boards committee.

P.I.G.

This is Uni's own Political Interest Group. They had three local political candidates as guest speakers. Students and teachers climbed four flights of stairs to hear Joseph Pisciotte, Stanley Weaver and Helen Satterthwaite speak.

Orientation

This year’s orientation group went from maxi to mini. It was the smallest Uni had seen for a while. The main reason was that there were no subs to orient.

Finance

This year with the budget cut, Finance committee made a valiant attempt to raise and appropriate money to the different school activities.

Audio Visual

This year, like others, Audio Visual's main job was taking care of the lighting for Big Show.

Dave Curtin, Dave Fumento, Ira Handler.

Encounter Group

Yearbook was not able to get a picture of this group, however it is in existence. It is a new organization this year. It is headed by Mr. Heinsen, and students participate.

Apathy Club

The Apathy club was formed early in Uni's history to combat a growing movement of par- ticipation. This year there were many meetings, all of them unattended. The Apathy Club also had several unsuccessful non-fund raising drives.

Co-Presidents: David Peshkin, Fred Marx, Ben Stake.
Secretary-Treasurers: Steve Kurland, Eric Mast. Members:

Student Exchange

Student Exchange is trying to send Uni students all over this year. There was a Chicago trip planned besides visiting local schools.

Book Bar

As usual, Book Bar sold used books at a discount to eager Uni students.
Chairman Jennifer McClellan, Angela Chow, Lee Perlstein, Emily Johnson.

Photography Club

Photography club takes and develops pictures.

S.O.S.

Something new in Sold on Sports this year, BOYS!!! S.O.S., the school's sports group, has shaken off some of the old traditions by sponsoring archery, roller skating, a square dance and football. They also kept the usual Uni interests such as volleyball and horseback riding.

First Row: secretary Sue Burnham, president Amber Barnhart, Ira Handler, vice president Patty Murtha. Second Row: treasurer Kathy Murtha, sponsor Mrs. Scott, Donald Spaeth.
German Club

Elections

This group collects, counts and publishes the different results in the elections of Uni.

First Row: Mary Wright, Lee Perlstein, Terry Stinson, David Peshkin. Second Row: Amy Metzger, Scott Vallance, Ben Stake, chairman Eric Mast

Milk

No, they don’t drink it, they sell it!

Pep Band

Ever hear of a trombone sounding like a clarinet? Come to Uni's basketball games and hear Patty Murtha playing trombone music on her clarinet! Pep Band plays at home basketball games to stir up interest and cheer the team on.

First Row: Irene Ang, Elaine Rothman  Second Row: conductor Patty Murtha, Lissa Lamkin

Games Club

This club, unofficially called the War Games Club, meets every Saturday. The group brings games using strategy and then plays them.

Unique

These literary geniuses come together to bring some culture to the deprived students of Uni. Every year they put out a collection of original compositions written by Uni students.

Rumors around the school say that S.F.A.C. stands for Student Faculty Advisory Committee. However, all the Uni students know that its true name is Save Faculty And Counselors (from students).

First Row: Margaret Drickamer, Fred Marx, Amber Barnhart, Mr. Royer.
Second Row: Dr. Gregorc, Mr. Dirks, Mr. Heisen, Mrs. Eissfeldt, Mr. Giles, and Mr. Hendrix.
Madrigals

Madrigals added two more singers to the group making a total of fourteen people. There are six Madrigals and eight Madriguys. Besides singing in the school concerts, they are invited to sing in many other places.

Mixed Chorus

Besides learning about music and how to sing, this group learned about warm fuzzies and cool pricklies. Remember, “A warm fuzzy a day will keep the mortician away.”

Model U.N.

This group is what it's name says. It is a model of the U.N. They discuss important issues that are introduced in the U.N. They plan to hold an all school General Assembly in the spring. We were unable to get a picture at this time.
Last not least, the U’N’I’ staff and editors. The people who worked so hard to make deadlines and put out a good yearbook and succeeded.

Chorus is such fun!

Huh? I don’t understand.

Call a spade a spade.

Being anonymous is the best bet.
SPORTS
1972 was a rebuilding year for Uni's X-C team under its new coach Warren Royer. At the beginning of the season only a few runners could run under 19:30 for 3 miles. By the end of the season however, coach Royer had 5 runners running under 17:30. There were two high points of the season. One was against Urbana when Uni came within 2 points of upsetting the heavily favored Tigers. The other was at Monticello where Uni's good grouping beat both Monticello and Cerro Gordo. Coach Royer could have one of the top teams in the area next year as he loses only Captain Eric Mast and John Scanlan. Trent Barnhart, Jim Bergan, Chris Albin, Dave Albin and Chris Wilcock should form the nucleus for a good team if they work over the summer.

Varsity Illineks

Complete Successful Season

Uni High paced by co-captains 6'5" Fred Marx, 5'11" Ken McClellan plus juniors Trent Barnhart, Paul Creighton and L. T. Robertson, completed its most successful basketball season since 1965-66. The Illineks compiled a 1-9 record in 1972 with five losses by 6 points or less. In 1973 the Illineks recorded a 5-4 record and really came into their own. They won 3 games in a row tying a mark set in the 1967-68 season. The Illineks of 1972-1973 continued the resurgence of basketball at Uni High and earned the name "Mighty Illineks."

Kevin Eichelberger, John Scanlan, Ben Stake and Dave Peshkin made valuable contributions during the season at practices and really pushed the top five for starting roles. Theirs is a difficult task and their effort is appreciated by the school.

Junior Illineks Show Improvement

The junior Illineks completed their best season in the last 5 years. Tom Dworshak, Chuck Ettensohn, Jim Bergan, Bill Herron, Hal Rothman, Kevin Walker and Guy Blaylock paced Coach Rick Kinder's squad. The hustle and drive shown by the J.V.'s will be a great asset to the varsity next year. The coaching staff feels this J.V. squad will contribute to greater success for the basketball program in the coming two years.
EVENTS
The traditional Orientation Picnic was held at Hessel Park this year, although there was not a new class to orientate. It was sponsored by Student Council.
ORIENTATION PICNIC

Christmas Dance

Christmas Dance was held in the Uni High Gym this year and the Memphis Underground played. It was sponsored by the Junior class.
PEP RALLY
Every year, the day Christmas vacation begins the teachers give the students a party. The different departments of the Faculty present hilarious skits that always meet with the student's approval.
"Holidays should be like this, Free from over emphasis, Time for soul to stretch and spit Before life comes back on it."

Louis Macneice
"You Were Born On A Rotten Day" was the comical, well-directed, beautifully performed school play this year.

When I was young and they packed me off to school
And they taught me how not to play the game
I didn't mind if they groomed me for success
Or if they said that I was just a fool.

I left there in the morning
With their God tucked underneath my arm
Their half-assed smiles and the book of rules.  (Ian Anderson)

GREAT ARE WE IN '73.

Public schools are the nurseries of all vice and immorality.
CLASS HISTORY

In the 1st year of our Lord Greginch, we come.
As subbies we are terrorized by the powerful freshmen who have tremendous energy for taunting us.
We timidly and delightedly attempt to play Spin the Bottle and Post Office at Ruthie's and Nancy's parties.
Fresh Figs establishes us as natural born glamour girls.
Empress Ruthie searches for a willing emperor and crowns her queens.
At our first encounter with Dr. G. he forbids PDA, PDA?
All the girls hate Miss Brown who chases us around the room.
Mr. Woods alternates his frequent trips on top of the tables with bouts underneath them trying to fish Megan out, and literally throws David Sosen out of the room.
Eric's sexy bod turns on the 12-year-olds.
We lose Philip Ciralski and Mark Krasnow.
Sub year ended on a serious note when Martin Thatcher Robinson was killed. We would like to take this opportunity to remember a beloved classmate.

In the 2nd year of our Lord Greginch, we get Jeff, Fred, David, Ben, Woody, David, Walt, Amber, Amy, and Desi wholesale.
To the tune of "Dawn, you're a snot! Matthew, you're a trouble instigator! Jenny, you're a dangerous cynic! and Terry, you're immature!" we joyfully turned Mr. Lemke's stomach.
Girls go wild over new freshmen boys. Boys don't know what's going on.
We lose Mike Noland.
6+s and themes everyday. How can we be so brilliant?
Mrs. Baker pulls us onto her counselor's couch and pleads with us to have problems.
Herr Pease scares us less.
Boys break in and down Chuckie D.
We all become 4-square champs.
Uni visits Fred in the hospital. Ruthie sticks out her chest and tries to look 15.
Captain Clipboard reenacts the reign of terror with war on lockers and against happy-go-lucky skippers.
Mr. Nurdle turns permanently red from having to teach us co-ed sex-ed.
Walt tells Mrs. Baker to get the hell out of the Boys' Lockerroom when he's in his jockstrap.
Fred accuses the class of stealing his underpants only to have Mr. Davis find them behind the urinal several months later.
Christie proves that blondes have more fun.
David Peshkin establishes his long-held reputation of class playboy.
Mr. Brown traps Alicia passing a note, and amid a hail of erasers and chalk, she swallows it.

In the 3rd year of our Lord Greginch we gain Miss Page, Mr. Heinse, Piotr and Kurt.
Ruthie carries her search abroad as we all mourn her and Fred.
Goody Eitelback puritanizes us all.
Sophomores discover the tanks.
Golden-boy comes.
Chris Rock puts in an appearance.
Herr Professor Dr. Jick-Jack has Chemistry Brand X.
Mrs. Craig wants to know if everybody is happy.
Megan miraculously breaks a chair in two equal pieces.
Piotr and Alice excell in unpornographic artwork.
Leah's bra finds its way to hanging from the Lounge ceiling lights.
Our song is "Sweet Georgia Brown" and the boys form a chorus line to dance to it.
Elmo remains anonymous.
Miss Schutt's perfect 32-32-32 and her classic lines become immortalized; her "I don't see a drop of water on your body," and "Do we have a dirty number 4?" make us wonder.
We rebel against cleanliness, throw the towels into the showers, and incur a lecture on the merits of bathing thrice daily (changing underwear each time) from Mr. Sion.
Dear Ruthie decides that Puberty is having your name on the boys' wooden seat, misspelling a 4-letter word, and bumping into Mary Wright.
In the 4th year of Our Lord Greginch, Tessa brings a touch of refinement to our rowdy class. Wilson puts the North Central evaluator to sleep as well as his usual lullaby-load of the whole class. Mrs. Hoag lectures us on the appropriateness of wearing brassieres while her girdle is amply showing. We watch Mrs. Pierrick's black roots grow in.

Ruthie B. is searching . . .

Tim's sprained thumbs keep him out of P.E. all year.

Mr. Soderstrom reads a newspaper in the middle of the soccer field while class conducts itself.

Our song is "Build Me UP Buttercup".

Lydia and Vicki turn into frogs before our very eyes.

Dawn, Rachel, and Leah join the boys' soccer game and are forced to play on the skins' team. Mr. Soderstrom freaks out.

We lose Luke, Woody, Megan, Mark, Tim, Nancy, Alice, Vicki, and Celia — for awhile.

In the 5th year of our Lord Greginch we gain Steve, and Florence comes with the most original pronunciation of the English Language we've ever heard.

The year starts out with a guzzle as Seniors boycott Howdy Hop in favor of Fred's. Seniors stumble in and out all night.

We decide we are becoming closer as a class, and after this momentous decision, we rush off in different directions.

The administration panicks when it realizes that 2/3 of the Seniors may not graduate.

We enter our Senior Slump in October and sink steadily.

Margaret finally skips a class . . . and another . . . and another . . .

Babcock blows up his locker.

Dawn discovers the Junior boys.

We discover the mysterious appeal of Encounter Groups and rush into them.

Polly, Leah, and Shere burn their bras and found their feminist organization.

Greg and Jim finally show up on the same day. After 2 months, we were beginning to wonder if they weren't both the same person.

Ben cuts off his hair and goes out for basketball to the shock of his classmates.

For 2 weeks certain senior girls are turned on to soul by Kendal and Kenny. Lounge rakes in the dough.

Our minds are forced into action by such stirring questions as — "Can a person in a wheelchair dance?" "Do babies need protein to grow muscles?"

"What can poor Glenda do?"

We learn to sway, shimmer and explode in Modern Dance.

Amber rules Student Council with a benevolent hand.

Michael continues to lug his briefcase down the hall, and we still don't know what's in its depths. Could he be — Mary Poppins in disguise?

Celia stalks the halls of Uni again.

Once again we have Health. We laugh at Mrs. Smith's kindergarten version of emergency 1st-aid and nutrition. We watch VD spread.

Mrs. Tibbetts says, "I bring the booze, you bring the entertainment to class."

David P. is the only one who is so grossed out by the childbirth movies that he has to leave the room quickly.

Florence, Lee, Tessa, Mary, Christie and Terry troop over to Mr. Quick's to work.

Eric steals from the cradle.

Our song is "Chantilly Lace".

Tessa loses weight and stuns us all.

Mary edits Yearbook as well as David.

Ruthie finally triumphs by receiving scores of valentines from her loving subjects and suitors.

And finally, in the Last Year Of Our Lord Greginch, we find that we must leave, too.

GOOD-BYE, UNI!
