Captain Illinek appeared on the scene at Uni High in the ’74-’75 school year. He immediately reached the hearts of the entire school as a Superhero who protected the average student from diabolical evildoers. Throughout these pages Captain Illinek is depicted at different stages in history. The drawings are bestowed to U’N’I by the illustrious talent of Dan Watson.

We, the graduating class of 1976, dedicate this yearbook to who brought us Oreo's and cucumber sandwiches; helped us in our efforts at English and X-country; lent us his office and his name (as a sponsor); and even cleaned the boy's room for us.

Mr. Warren Royer . . .

We love you.
and

Dr. Ella C. Leppert

who gave us not only the facts, but the flavor of the past; inspired an ethnic loyalty close to nationalism; and managed to teach us all about World War II on the last day of class two years in a row . . .

We love you.
Dr. Ella Catherine Leppert retired this year after twenty two years of proving the value of solid bases. The Instrumentalists, Chorus, and Madrigals gave a special concert in her honor, and a retirement dinner is planned for May 15. Uni will miss you.

Farewell Dr. Leppert
Events
Howdy Hop

Traditional orientation activities included Howdy Hop, Orientation Social, and Orientation Picnic. This year Howdy Hop featured music by Ratsback, unusual lighting, and—what Uni kids seem to enjoy most—refreshments.
Halloween Dance
Fall Play
Patti Elliott Jenkins directed the play; teaching the cast how to fall drunkenly, sing seductively, and roll cigarettes. Chris Wilcock and Martin Doebel constructed the set.
“Collage” (or “One Acts Gone Crazy”) featured music of all kinds as well as a series of dramatic sketches. Participants ranged from “budding young artists” making their debut on the stage to veterans of several Uni productions and pros like Ms. Patti. Chris Hurt (remember him?—the drunk in BUS STOP) was a novice director and actually made a success of it. The event revealed some—ah—"interesting" aspects of certain venerated teachers.
As usual, Slave Sale was one of X-Week's biggest and best events. But interest in the Tape Race soon eclipsed everything else. The Faculty actually got up to the second floor. And the intense Senior-Sub rivalry kept up excitement to the end. The Class of '76 won, as they have every year.
The band, Jesse Ross, provided music for people to do anything (like waving at yearbook photographers) and everything (like dancing) to.

Both music and people—essential ingredients for a good dance—were in plenty at the Union.

Lounge

Sir Andrew dressed in shining white
Sir Renken tried but not quite
Together they led the S.C. true and right
Every Wednesday noon showing their might
The future seemed as dark as night
But S.C. led the way, and showed us light.

Deciding upon ideas, deciding yes or no
For the students of the round table they led the way
For Student Council they led from day to day.

Finance controlled the treasures of the land
Sir Glocker held the money tight in hand
They held the S.C. budget in check
They kept it from being a financial wreck.

Lounge was led by Lady Mueller and Sir Crock
And to their rooms the crowds did flock
This room was a haven for short and tall
And through their efforts, lounge was enjoyed by all.

Supplying us with our lunchtime need
We thank them all, we thank each one
We congratulate them for a job well done.

Milk
Chess

“Checkmate”, softly chants the victor. The loser pleads, “Just one game more”. Members of the club are masters of the game; Each one trying to play his way to fame.

ECO

The plants, the animals, all heaven sent, We all must protect the environment. Such is the idea that ECO is puted to, To protect all nature under the sky blue.

Latin

To these the past of ancient Rome does call. To this day they regret the fall, For them “Pax Romana” was the time to be alive, For in Latin Club, Rome still does thrive.
S.O.S.

Volleyball in the gym, basketball at lunch,
At basketball games a snack to munch,
Athletics, competition, sports, all of these we need.
And on the way to these SOS was in the lead.

A.A.B.

The Athletic Advisory Board had many a vision.
Over athletics they made many a decision.
One more away game, one more track meet,
As always AAB must think on its feet.

A.V.

Audio supplied the sounds that would be.
Visual supplied the sights we would see.
They ran the projectors for every lad and lass,
For every teacher in every class.

Chorus. FRONT ROW: Dan Bruner, Alison Reiber, Cindy Sherbert, Nancy Brotherson. BACK ROW: Hla Tlou, Nels Gullerud, Raffi Babakhanian, Frank Gladney, Marie Williams, Gloria Nettl, Peter Koledziej, and Ducky Sherwood. Mrs. Jordan directed the group and Philippa Norman accompanied on the guitar.
Jim Ang, Mark Williams, and David Glockner supplied U’N’I with photographs. A special thanks to John Dixon for class pictures. Ted Ross, Martin Doebel, Lucia Chen, Dan Watson, Joe Coble, Sarah Axel, Kathy Mueller, Kitty Ravenhall, and Kathy Murtha put together the pages. Veronica Woodhouse ran sales; Mr. Royer sponsored and advised; and Marcie helped a lot.
FACULTY
Administration

Dr. James Raths (left) was appointed Principal in July before this school year. During the year he faced many problems including those concerned with homework loads, Uni High social life, the size of the school, and the variety of courses offered and required. Of course, Dr. Raths was an important part of SFAC.

Mr. Warren Royer spent his second year as Associate Principal this year, giving Dr. Raths the benefit of his administrative experience. He also continued his close interaction with the students, sponsoring the Handbook and Orientation, Bookbar, and Milk Committees and Yearbook. He was also an integral part of SFAC.

Office Staff

This year Dr. Robert Davis was the Director of the Curriculum Laboratory. He also taught Math to the Seventh Graders and the Freshmen. Ms. Anne Vogelweld was Dr. Davis' assistant at the Curriculum Laboratory. Pat Bandy, Dr. Davis' secretary, is not pictured.

Mrs. June Mank was the bookkeeper, who kept tabs on all the money coming in and going out of Uni High business and student accounts.

Mrs. Kathy Eissfeldt was the receptionist. Her duties included making up the weekly calendar, putting out daily and quarterly attendance reports and typing correspondence for the school.

Mrs. Alma Kantner was the staff stenographer. She helped the teachers type and duplicate materials.
Man's mind stretched to a new idea never goes back to its original dimensions.

Oliver Wendell Holmes

Dr. Ella C. Leppert was the head of the Social Studies department and taught four courses (U. S. History, Western European History, Russia and the Soviet Union, and Sub-Saharan Africa). Dr. Leppert also sponsored Elections Committee.

Mr. Anton Lissy taught a course entitled Life Span Human Development. He was a research coordinator, too.

Mrs. Ellen Johnson taught India and Seventh Grade Social Studies and sponsored the Freshman Class.

Mr. Walter Stasiak taught Social Studies to the Freshmen.
Mrs. Charlene Tibbetts, the head of the English department, taught Junior and Senior English. She also sponsored Unique.

Mrs. Mary Hoag took on the job of teaching English to the freshmen and sophomores. She was the Business Manager for the theatre productions too.

Mrs. Mary Fish was a research assistant in English. She was a member of SFAC and the sponsor of the Sophomore class.

English

If you would not be forgotten, as soon as you are dead and rotten, either write things worth reading, or do things worth the writing.

Benjamin Franklin

Reading makes a full man—
Meditation a profound man—
Discourse a clear man.

Benjamin Franklin
All the world's a stage
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances;
Each man in his time plays many parts.
William Shakespeare

Life is painting a picture, not doing a sum. Oliver Wendell Holmes

Above: Ms. Patricia Elliot-Jenkins, a member of both the Aesthetics and English departments, taught theatre classes and sponsored and/or directed this year's theatre performances, including the Fall and Spring Plays, the One-Acts, and Big Show. Right: Mr. Charles (Chuck) Douglas taught Shop and Drafting and sponsored the Junior Class and Lounge Committee. Below: Mrs. Wilma Zonn taught Music to the subfreshmen. She also instructed students interested in vocal or instrumental music and sponsored Madrigals. Lower Right: Mrs. Becky Kobos taught Art to the subfreshmen and to other interested students. Mrs. Kobos was also the sponsor of Poster Pal.

Aesthetics

Miss Jean Bystrom, not pictured, was the chorus teacher.

Mr. Harold Millar, who is in the department of "Operation and Maintenance", was our "Building Service Worker".
Mrs. Berchie Gordon taught Sophomore and Junior Math during her first year at Uni.

Mathematics

Mr. Curtis McKnight assisted Dr. Davis with the Seventh Grade and Freshman Math classes.

Ms. Katie Hannibal, who is not pictured, assisted Dr. Davis with the Seventh Grade and Freshman Math classes.
Science is the labour and handicraft of the mind.
Francis Bacon

Dr. George Triplett had two Biology classes and a Methods in Science class. He sponsored the Environmental Concerns Organization (ECO). Also, Dr. Triplett was the head of the Science department.

Mr. Peter Kimble was the coordinator/administrator for PLATO at Uni this year. He offered courses in Computer Science.

We shall not cease form exploration
And the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time.
T. S. Eliot

Mr. Douglas Dirks taught two sections of Physics this year. In addition, he sponsored Student Council and Finance Committee.

Mr. Paul Mailman taught Computer Science to subfreshmen and others.

Mrs. Louise Meyer was the Chemistry teacher.
Mrs. Luella Busboom was the secretary in the Counseling Office.

Ms. Barbara Brown Francis was the Director of the Counseling Office and the Seniors' counselor. She also helped sponsor the Seventh Graders.

Mr. Marc Tabackman was the counselor for the Juniors and the counselor for and co-sponsor of the Seventh Graders.

Mrs. Laurie Lorimer was the counselor for the Sophomores and the Freshmen, the co-sponsor of the Seventh Graders, the Psychology teacher, and the sponsor of the Encounter Group.

As we leave Uni, we look back and remember . . .

Our Sub-year - -
It was Uni's 50th anniversary. We staged a lounge sit-in . . . and got sat on. Amo-amas-amat! We love our teacher a lot! Amamus-amatus-amant! We love our Miss Lamont! Larry Dwyer made little Bachurachs out of us all. We played 4-square and hoarded the ball. We played city and hoarded PRU's Mr. Tremblay inspired wit "Gee ahm a tree". We got a taste of Dr. Szabo, and preferred spinach. Eric becomes Rufus. Kathy gets tied to a tree. Joe put his posterior through a window. Chris McCormick (1 of 5 Chris') covered his dirty books with McCarthy stickers and impressed Eitelbach with his interest in politics. Mary and Chris became first couple. Philip, Ray, and Brad merged to form one, short blonde with glasses. Margaret suffered romantic traumas in silence. Rat the Ripper thrilled us. Aardvarks and Wombats as a SS final?

Our Freshman year - -
We came back find no subs to bully. We are the youngest again. We lost Cow-eyes, Chris Mc, and Abby, but we gained Frank, Joe, Yonnie, Karen, Steve, Kathy, Mike, Nancy, Patty, Elaine, Jim, Andy, Pete and Ullyses. We came with Great Expectations to a slightly Flakey Math teacher. We found lost civilizations in boxes of dirt. David eloped with his one true love . . . PLATO IV. We played football three times a day. Mr. Royer kicked out a record number of students from class. Chris got kicked out a record number of times. We had raisin fights. Dean burnt down the ILPS lab . . . 3 times. We had our first (of many) class party at Joe's and went sailing (?) in a packing crate. Party fever rages. We play Funny Bones while Kristin and Patty make peanut butter pizza. Veronica developed her shoe lace fetish. Kitty come back. Chris goes West. Rufus went further West. Eric goes East (?)
Our Sophomore year --
We come back to find FORMIES (UGH!!) and immediately join F.O.E. We lost Eddie, Scott, Yonnie, Patty, Nancy, and Pete; and gained Gail, Becky, Joe, Jenna, Chas, Catherine and Francois Gaunkies emerged. Greg rose to power. We played Bridge (13 people in one game?). Baseball was banned. Real couples appeared as romance blossomed. On Sophomore Trip we got 5,000 push-ups for Ketchup fights. Dean and Andy were found in a closet . . . under some coats . . . together. Four of us occupied one single bed at the same time. The girls did calisthenics braless while Joe and Mr. Scott tried to watch the BB tourney. We boycott P.E. in "Babes in Toyland" we revert to our childhood. On Valentines Day, Jenna doled out kisses and cookies. Chris becomes CROCK. Zwoyer leaves us to Davis. Chris came back—with short hair. Rufus and Eric came back.

Our Junior year --
We came back to Uni in our total control. We lost Becky, Kate, Jo, Kristin, Mike, Steve, Elaine, Catherine and Francois. Quack Doctor and Hitzeh expressed our every feeling. The boys explored the wonders of Uni and ended up on the roof. Frank uttered that immortal line, "Out of where?" Max slipped a caramel onion into our Bake Sale. PDA was in full swing. Mike "whipped it out" in SS and gave a speech on keeping the audience alert with his pants down. Rufus becomes Gus. In Latin, The Art of Love was studied feverishly. Captain Illinek inspired us all. Veronica finally found a good hiding place for the sho lace. We practiced mouth to mouth resuscitation . . . on each other. We actually WON a Basketball game . . . (Uni vs. Beason) Nancy came back and swept Greg off his throne. Armen went West—far West. Chris went East.

Our Senior year --
We return as the last real class at Uni High; all the others are just Formies. We lose JoAnna, Betty, Janet, Jenna, Dort, and Joe. Chas, Armeen, and Ted return. Chris comes back—sophisticated. Karen returns from Europe—sophisticated . . . and corrupted. We are plagued with letters from colleges, U. S. History, Calculus, and speeches. One quarter of the class are NMSQT semifinalists. We join the workforce. Miss Leppert stays just for us. She finally learns that Chuck is Chris, Charles is Chas, Monica is Veronica, Gus is Eric, and Kathy is Kitty. Patti J. comes and we lose all the boys. Patti's husband comes and we lose all the girls. We can't decide whether we miss them or not. Mike and Joe beat Chris at X-country. Ted runs into a tree, and steps into a hole. Poor Ted. Ray discovers the Freshman girls. Susan takes the library home over X-mas vacation. Martin becomes Pres. of the Invalid Athletes Club. Maxie starts a football pool and Mr. Royer cleans up. Gail throws parties, parties, and parties. Beth's maternal instincts take over. And finally we must leave Uni High . . .
Janet Winifred McGrath (Janet)

The ultimate end . . . is not knowledge, but action. To be half right on time may be more important than to obtain the whole truth too late. (Aristotle)

It is good for man
To try all changes, progress and corruption, powers, peace and anguish, not to go down the dinosaur's way until all his capacities have been explored: and it is good for him to know that his needs and nature are no more changed in fact in ten thousand years then the beaks of eagles.

And when we give each other Christmas presents in His name, let us remember that

He has given us the sun and the moon and the stars,
The earth with its forests and mountains and Oceans—
and all that lives and moves upon them.
He has given us all green things and everything that blossoms and bears fruit—
and all that we quarrel about and all that we have misused—
and to save us from our own foolishness, from all our sins,
He came down to earth and gave us Himself.

There is a mountain somewhere—a very high mountain, with many treacherous cliffs and slopes. On top of this mountain there is a flower—the most beautiful flower in the world—not only does this flower have a set of colors to match any rainbow ever, but its fragrance is appealing to everyone.

People climb this mountain to try to reach this flower. Many try all their lives and never attain it. Others don't care enough to try to reach this flower. But those who make it to the top—who climb the cliffs and slopes and finally see the flower—reach a climax in their lives.

Yet once they have this flower it is even more beautiful if they take it to someone else—someone who has not been able to reach the top yet.

In case you have not guessed; the mountain is life, and the beautiful flower is love.

I am going to reach the top someday. I am going to pick this flower. And I am going to bring it and give it to you.
CHRISTIAN MC GINNIS

Have you seen this big hunk of basketball player, this rock among rocks, this all beef patty? If not shell out for a bus ticket to Rossville to see:

UNI versus ROSSVILLE

in the game of the century
(the bus rides are pretty neat too.)

J.V. game starring: U.S. Stevenson, Gerhard "The Butcher" Lotion, and Frank "The Tank" Gladney

Varsity game starring: Pistol Dave Brooks, Abdual-Abzeen Mueller, Joe "Always counted on to Choke at the Free-throw Line" Coble, and Beeg ManChow

Grab the nearest cheerleader, pay your dollar-fifty, and take your seat on the bus, which leaves around 5:00 And for the eighteenth person to purchase a ticket there will be a prize—

ARMEEN GOULD!!!

Don't forget the orgy at Chow's house after the game
