We, the Class of 1984, Would Like To Dedicate This Yearbook to Warren Royer
We feel that Mr. Royer, our principal, deserves this dedication because of all the things he has done for us. Beginning with subfreshman year, Mr. Royer made us feel right at home with his welcoming speech. Freshman year, he aided us by substituting for Mrs. Nelson and by giving us the "Warren Royer Theory." Sophomore and junior years went smoothly due to the leadership and persuasive ability of Mr. Royer, who managed to somehow — from somewhere — procure funds for our school. Finally, our senior year, we would like to give something back to Mr. Royer — our sincere thanks for all his help.
It must run in the family.

ORGANIZATIONS
Student Council met during the lunch hour and discussed, among other things, student scholarships, school rules, as well as how much money they would allocate to Yearbook this year. Mr. Crames and the Executives helped to keep the chaos of Uni down to a minimum.

Elections Committee

The Elections Committee counted the student ballots to determine the outcome of the class officer elections. In so doing, democracy was insured once again.

The Student-Faculty Committee, called SFAC, consists of both students and faculty representatives. The group helped to advise the principal on the affairs of the school by bringing in the ideas and opinions of each class.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society was made up of talented, bright, and aspiring young students who did many exciting and interesting things which reflected their leadership ability, creative and unique talents, character... yawn...
The Lounge Committee helped keep the Lounge in order so that students would have a place to socialize and relax between classes. They also acquired some badly needed new furniture to replace the old.

Bookbar

Book Bar aided the students to begin the new year by providing a place to buy and sell used textbooks.

Varsity Chess

Junior Varsity Chess

The Chess club, led by William Jockusch (president), Mark Elder (secretary/treasurer), and Chris Butler (sponsor) was a top notch team. In nine league meets, the junior varsity and varsity members matched their skills against the skills of other league members. Also, they participated in two invitationals - one in Aurora (which Uni won) and the other in Ottowa (in which both A and AA teams competed).

Under the direction of editors Matthew Kolodziej and Paul Zinnes, and Ms. Feeney (sponsor), the yearbook staff dedicated long and torturous hours producing the 1984 UNI Yearbook. Miraculously, the staff managed to put together the yearbook without killing each other ... yet ... and even managed to have fun (and pizza) every once in a while.

The Handbook committee acquainted students with both the activities available to them as well as the school’s rules and regulations. To familiarize them with Uni High, faculty and parents were also provided with handbooks.
Gargoyle

Gargoyle, the school newspaper, was edited by Rick Burkhardt and Nina Paley. It was published once a month and featured articles about sports, events, and general University gossip. Frau Henry sponsored these budding journalists.

Unique

University High's literary magazine, Unique, was organized by Adele Suslick (sponsor), Iris Chang (editor), and Bobs Winter (editor). The students involved contributed creative — and indeed unique — material to produce a final collection of works which came out in the spring.
Made up of freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior mathematicians, the Math club met each Mon. to prepare for two major math contests: MAA (conducted at Uni) and ICTM (conducted at Parkland Junior College). With sponsor Mr. Pat’s help the club also discussed difficult math problems.

Agora Week committee was lead this year by Eugenia Chow and Gail Gamble. The entire committee put in many hours scheduling classes and making Agora Week a reality for everyone. We are much indebted to Rachel Peters for her help in our efforts.
Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Murphy, rehearsed their songs in the North Attic during 8th period. Made up of freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors, the musical group performed at a few concerts, including the annual Fall Concert.

This year, Madrigals met 8th period in the South Attic for rehearsal. The ensemble, dressed in "interesting" gowns, was made up of the 4 upper classes. They performed songs at concerts and benefits throughout the year, under Mr. Murphy's direction. The group also sang for us at the Annual Surprise Party.

EVENTS
Fall Play
Anne Frank

This year's fall play was The Diary of Anne Frank, based on the book Anne Frank: Diary of a Young Girl. Ms. Audrey Wells directed a cast of only ten people whose jobs were to portray not characters, but real people caught in an important historical event. As time went on and we began to get the feel of the people we were playing (nearly driving Ms. Wells insane in the process) we then realized what a tough job we'd taken on. But all went well and, with the help of a fantastic crew, we were able to put on what we hope was a very enjoyable performance. The cast and crew, from top to bottom, left to right; Jessica Hymowitz, Sylvia Temperley, Nat Finney, John Walker, Sophia Neely, Denise Dorning, Nina Paley, Kathleen Liu, Linda Travis, Lucy Kim, Jenny Rugg, Barbara Maclay, Audrey Wells, Jamsheed Shorish, Cynthia Chou, Steve Findley, Lark Huang, Andrew Reisner, Sheila Findley, Lisa Averbush, Peter McDowell, Rick Burkhardt, Lisa Frankenberg, Becky Davidson.

Dances

We began the year with the Howdy Hop, which introduced the subbies to the UNI High dance atmosphere. Later in the Fall we had a Halloween Dance, complete with the annual costume contest. Finally, we had the Thanksgiving Dance, DJ'ed by a couple of rookies, Rick Burkhardt and Brian Holloway, who both did a good job.
The Police!

While not an official Uni event, the Police concert in November probably attracted more Uni students than any Uni event. Before the Police took to the stage, we were treated to an opening act by UB-40. Martha Quinn from MTV also made a 30 second appearance. But, the main event was the Police. For an hour and a half, Sting, Stu, and Andy played hits not only from their latest album "Synchronicity," but also some from their past albums as well. All in all, it was a night to remember.
The Christmas party was a blast.
The Christmas Dance was truly great.
The evening ended all too fast.
For those of us who had a date.

SPORTS
Girls Team

Beginning the season with Sarena Heuman as the only returning runner, the prospects for the new girls' cross country team did not look bright. But inexperience did not hold back the team for very long. Ella Schoenberg placed second at regionals, third at sectionals, and made the All-State team with her 25th place finish at State. The freshman members also added much to the team's success. The team finished second at both the Bulldog Classic and the State Regional meet. At the sectional meet, they placed seventh. Coach Michael McCollom noted that, "all of this speaks well for the future. We take great pride in our accomplishments in 1983. We look forward to more young runners joining us and to moving up in 1984."
The cross country team had reason to be proud of this season's achievements. The 22 runners were undefeated in dual meets. They won the Chrisman, Paxton, Bismark-Henning, Bulldog, and State Regional Championship invitational. In addition to this impressive record, they finished twelfth at State. According to coach Mike McCollom, the team, "can look back to the great performances of our seniors: Greg Laughlin, Pieter VanEs, Mike Blossom, Tracy Jones, and Derek Chen. These young men gave our juniors, sophomores, freshmen, and subfreshmen a solid, winning program . . . All in all, this season was a super one, both in effort and performance."

The Gymnastic team this year was coached by Robin Wiedeman. They practiced early in the morning and in the afternoons during the week at Kenney Gym. The well balanced gymnasts participated in many out of town meets from which they returned late in the night. After their regular season, the team continued to practice for an exhibition they were to participate in. Pictured above team members are: First Row; Mary Kay Mullally, Anna Friedman, Kim Seitz, Lisa Palmer, Ellen Johnson, Linda Travis, Inna Shapovalov, Lisa Mabry. Second Row; Lucy Kim, Ella Schoenberg, Ursula Hess, Rebecca Swarr, Katy Marino, Laura Mabry.
Last year, the boys' and girls' teams came in first and second, respectively, in the conference. The team, in preparing to match their previous efforts, had both an indoor and an outdoor season. With the dedication of both the veteran and rookie runners, the team "dared to excel." The boys' team captains were Derek Chen and Mike Blossom, while Anne Shapira and Ella Schoenberg provided leadership for the girls.
This year's soccer team found an outstanding coach, Ray Salazar. While the team had a rough year against Park District opponents, their performance showed much improvement. Their only win was against a strategic opponent — crosstown rival Urbana (4-1). The team hit the road several times, playing in Bloomington and Danville. They hope to soon become a varsity team.

Swimming

The swim team made a great improvement this year. The team almost doubled in size, from 7 people to 13, and they participated in one extra meet. They competed in three meets, a relay meet with 11 other teams, a duel meet, and district. At district, Sheila Findley qualified for state and later at state placed third in the 100 yd. backstroke. The coach again this year was Alan Ledgin.

Cheerleaders

Although there were only four Uni cheerleaders, the squad's spirit doubled its size. Their enthusiasm encouraged players and fans at both home and away games. Leah Grossman (junior) was the squad's only veteran member. Gail Gamble – who broke the Class of 84's "no-cheerleader" tradition – Courtney Bishoff (freshman) and Anna Friedman (freshman) were new members.
Subbie Basketball

The subbie basketball team, made up of both boys and girls, had a good record this year. Their coach, Richard Murphy, and their assistant coach, Chuck McMillen, led the team through seven games against other schools. (Back row, L to R) Steve Norton, Karl Hess, Jeff Denen, Tim Kaufman, Colin Koteles, Sylvia Knust (Front row) Amy Eades, Peter Wen, Mark Paci, John Leslie, Katie Salzmann Not pictured: Ellen Johnson, Emily Osborn, Amanda Young
Girls' Varsity Basketball

This year's girls' varsity team had more members than ever before. They were (Top row, L to R) Eren Clausing, Mary Doebel, Suzy Schoenweiss, Melinda Meyer, Sophia Neely, Jana Kramer, and coach Pat McGlaughlin. (Bottom row) Denise Doming, Alice Liu, Sarah Williams, Melinda Chen. Everyone practiced and played hard, on the way to a very successful season. And, with only two seniors on the team, next year's team should even be better!
Go for it!
Girls JV Basketball

This was the first year for a girls JV Basketball team at Uni. The 13 girls on the team had a very good attitude and worked hard to improve themselves. They showed a lot of progress in many aspects of the game and now show the makings of a fine team. The team picture in the top right hand corner shows, top to bottom, left to right, Jessica Hymowitz, Lisa Norton, Libby Miericke, Tina Schoenweiss, Mary Doebel, Sally Walker, Annie Getis, Debbie Siekman, Julie Kimmel, Maureen McCord, Julie Swadner.
Boys’ Basketball

This year was a rebuilding year for the boys’ varsity team, having lost four senior players last year. Seniors Mike Blossom and Eric Giles were this year’s captains. In his first year as a varsity coach, Greg Walters directed the guys in 9 home and 9 away games, in addition to the Oakland Thanksgiving Tournament and the Deland-Weldon Eagle Classic. Ray “let’s go, Fellas” Salazar was the assistant coach and greatly improved our skills. We hope that the experience acquired from this year will aid in developing an even stronger team for next year. Pictured above right (back row, L to R) David McCord, Larry Thompson, Brent Jordan, Matt Kolodziej, Tracy Jones, Eric Giles, Michael Blossom, Arthur Patten. CLASS HISTORY

SUBFRESHMAN — We are all very studious. We’re all nerds. We win a basketball game — Free Pizza, Coke and Ice Cream. Missy and Leo, Matt and Sylvia, Eric and Erica, Jordy and Diana. Is it possible to rekindle old flames? All the girls love Jonno, but Diana “likes” him. The girls fight on the bathroom wall. Playing cards, especially 3-5-9, is the “in thing” to do. Mr. Young thrills us with his paper airplanes, playdoh and earring. No one can tell the difference between Jonno and Pieter.

FRESHMAN — We lose Pat, Cassie, Trish, Tracy C., Sonya P. and Julie, but we gain Paul Z., Paul J. (Ya Pol!), Todd, Arnold, Mary and Alison R. Arnold and Gail are going to get married. The sub boys (Nick, Rich, Steve) are hot stuff. Mr. C. says he’s “sorey.” Sarah B. gets a FRIZZ. Becky falls for Richard W. Alex Wong is in love with Plato. Erica and Alison M. join girls’ basketball. Matt and Mike B. start out their illustrious basketball careers. Mr. Hurtz dubs Matt “Nappy Head”. Mr. Yesu tells us “I am not Butler.” Even Michelle didn’t listen. Pieter, Greg, David S., David P. run the Fred Smith for President Committee. Heavy Metal. Todd and Diana win the Halloween Dance Kissing Contest. Biology camping trip. Gail loves horses and talks funny. Does Jennie really have eight boyfriends in two weeks?
SOPHOMORE — Jordy returns, but we lose Mike Bailey, Sonya H., Kagle, Alison M., Stephanie M., Jonno, Kathy W. and Diana. Reagan and Diriger confuse us. John S. (a Soph with a beard?) comes and goes. But the student radical movement is started and becomes the juvenile delinquent movement (with special ranking by Peter M.) junior year. Ud language is invented by Pud and Spud. Lots of ramble-ram new phrases are invented, like heavy boasting, top viewing, and ram-cheating. CHICAGO TRIP with Naugler.

JUNIOR — Wheeler and Gutowsky. We gain Mark and retrieve Diana, and lose Alison R., Paul J., Sean E., and Mike Boni. Todd loves Becky, Becky hates Todd. Todd hates Becky, Becky loves Todd . . . Mr. Naugler lets us punt Physics. Studly Pudly has a version of the videotape theme song, including bomb effects. May Day Dance with Two Fat. David gets a moped. Billy’s parties.

SENIORS — Sylvia is radical. We lose Small Paul, Alex, Alice and Arnold, but we gain Tracy. Dr. Bob changes his pants. Eugenia loves cute hunks. Paul gets a motorcycle. Mike and Bekcy. NO DOZ. Tracy, Mike, Greg, Pieter and the Cross Country team go to State. The final nicknames are China, Gene, Frzzz, Oh Mary, Horses, Dutch, Yosemite, Awrigh, Vid Hector, the Communists.
CLASS WILL

1, Tracy Jones, leave my ability to pick up women to Thomas Leslie, and my athletic guts and dirty tricks to David McCord.

1, Jordy Kellman, leave the presidency of the apathy club and all the responsibilities it carries to David Teitelbaum.

1, Matthew Eliot Kolodziej, leave my way with words to Pat, my black “Tom Cruz” jacket to Brent Jordan and a Michelob to the class of 1985.

1, Jana Kramer, leave Larry and our darkroom skills to Anne Shapira, and my arrogance and obnoxious behavior to Alice Liu, Sophia Neely, and Julie Kimmel, all of whom are too mellow for their own good.

1, Creel Lancaster, leave Emma Solaun the presidency of the Bacardi and Coke fan club and my thing for broad-shouldered men.

1, Greg Laughlin, leave my running physique to Brent Jordan.

1, Peter McDowell, leave my undying love to Iris, my subtle acting to Lisa F., and all the best to Pat Mc., Katey C., and Susan W.

1, Billy McMillan, hereby will my ability to party all week to Wendy Applequist, and my good looks to Simon Damberger.

1, Leo Shaeg Millar, leave my ability to snicker at anything and often nothing to Elaine Yang, who needs to laugh as much as possible, and my taste in clothes to Nick Porta, the unchallenged king of old, blue, smelly sweats.

1, Jennifer Oglesbee, leave (with Sylvie) our tree to Emma.

1, Erica Prussing, leave my appreciation of Duran Duran to David Paul and my tennis “expertise” to Mr. Pat.

1, David Secrest, leave my SAT verbal score to Gregory Wheeler.

1, Sylvie Temperley, leave (with Jennie) our tree to Emma, my hair to Todd W., and the writing on the ground to Mrs. Wheeler.

1, Andres Uribe, leave my fantastic Ms. Pacman ability to Kelly and Eddie.

1, Pieter van Es, will the holes in my feet to the large-footed U-Man.

1, Todd Walker, leave my GPA to Eric Krock, my ability to jam on the guitar to David Teitelbaum, my radical nature to Dave M., and my friendship to everybody.

1, Bobs Winter, leave my moderate politics to John Cochrane and my status as senior Danville ambassador to Cheri Anaclerio.

1, Paul Zinnes, leave my ability to talk back to certain History teachers to Kurt Tuohy.

1, Sarah Balwin, leave my condolences to Emma, who has to spend another year with her class.
I, Mike Blossom, leave my love for sports, parties, and blowing off homework to Kurt Tuohy, my humility to Nick Porta, and my sincere best wishes to Brent Jordan and Larry Thompson.

I, Derek Chen, leave a few dark hairs to Pat and a bar of soap and a comb to Herbert Schonken.

I, Eugenia Chow, leave the "hunks" on my locker to Rebecca Swarr, and my laughter to Monique Brown.

I, Katherine Csizmadia, leave a few laughs to Dave McCord, for when he can't get them himself, the rest of my cackling to Rebecca, who never seems to laugh enough, and lots of luck to my sister, Marianne.

I, Becky Davidson, leave my "All natural" hair to Lisa Frankenburg to help reduce her perm and hair care expenditures, my sister to torment Pat McLaughlin when I leave and a great big hug to Robin Van Es.

I, Mary Doebel, leave my STRONG voice to Kathleen Liu.

I, Ted Eckert, refuse to leave anything to anybody on the grounds that I do not wish to incriminate myself.

I, Mark Elder, leave my inclination to take my time while playing chess to Shai Ben-Svi and my imperturbability to Andrew Reisner.

I, Nat Finney, do hereby will my cleats to Kevin Pondy, my acid trips to Laura Mabry and my somnambulance to whoever.

I, Gail Gamble, being of sound mind and body, leave my taste in jokes to David McCord, my love of rabbits to Mike Johnson and Kelly Fitz, every ounce of fat on my body to Alice Liu and my blonde hair to all the brunettes of Uni High.

I, Eric Giles, leave my un-SPIKED hair to my brother, my incredible basketball moves to Brent Jordan, and my amazing Latin translation skills to Rebecca Swarr.

I, Chris Heckman, leave Paul's Rubik's Cube and Steve's Plato terminal to anyone who might need them.

I, Sarah Hendrick, leave my attention span to Linda "where are we?" Travis and my shoe size to Nathan Gardner, who always has wanted "Kleine Füsse."

I, Diana Hoover, leave my Communist sympathies to Dave McCord, who badly needs them.

I, William Jockusch, leave my backpack to Micheal Steigman and my reputation to Emma Schlaun.

I, Michelle Jolly, leave my ability to do my homework to Laura Mabry.

"No sane person in the country likes the war in Vietnam, and neither does President Johnson." — Hubert H. Humphrey
The junior class worked hard to sponsor both prom and, along with the freshmen, the Spring Fligg. With the guidance of sponsor Mike McCollom, Richard Williams (president), Leah Grossman (secretary/treasurer), and Anne Shapira (representative) did a fine job in helping their classmates organize two successful dances.

Freshmen

The 51 freshmen, organized by Eric Krock (president), Kathleen Liu (secretary/treasurer), and Steve Findley (representative) became vendors of hot dogs and baked goods in order to help support the annual Spring Fling. Under the direction of Peter Kimble, they achieved their goal, thus helping to make the Spring Fling lots of fun.

Subfreshmen

What the subfreshman class lacked in size, it made up in numbers. This year, there were 55 subbies occupying the halls of Uni. Their class officers were Ellen Johnson (president), John Neadherisier (secretary/treasurer), and Todd Nelson (representative); LuAnn Smith sponsored the class.

Some Closing Thoughts

On a more serious note, the yearbook staff would like to sincerely thank all of those who helped us produce this book: to our parents, who put up with our late working hours; to Mr. Crames, who shared his office and his candy; to Mrs. Mank, who pulled us out of more than one jam; to the student council, who kindly increased our budget (hint, hint); to our patrons, who were more than generous. And especially to Matt — who worked long hours — and Paul — whose photographs are art. Thanks.

Sincerely,
Sarah, Anne, and Robert
