1970-71 ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LIBRARY

Total volumes held by the Library at Urbana-Champaign as of June 30, 1971 were 4,609,238. The Library of Medical Sciences in Chicago holds 199,557 volumes, for a total of 4,808,795. The total cost of new materials purchased this year was $2,017,163 for a net volume increase of $197,628.

SERIALS

This year the Library was receiving 69,891 different current serial titles, excluding newspapers. The Newspaper Library held subscriptions to 8,114 newspapers. The Central Serial Record, which will eventually list all current and retrospective serial holdings, now contains entries for 57,302 titles.

EXCHANGE

At the end of the year the Library was maintaining exchange relationships with 3,199 institutions, both foreign and domestic. In exchange for 35,021 copies of University of Illinois publications, the Library received publications from other universities, learned societies and similar organizations.

LIBRARY STAFF ASSOCIATION

The Library Staff Association is looking forward to a great new year. This year the library staff, academic and non-academic, numbers about 375. The Association, which is open to all employees, including graduate assistants, would like to enlist the membership of every single person on the staff.

To join for the year, take or send one thin dollar to Nancy Bier, our treasurer, Acquisitions Dept., Room 220, Library.

The Fall Reception of the Association will be held Friday, October 8 at 8 p.m. at the University Club. A big thanks goes to Gordon Bagby, husband of Felicia Bagby for doing the art work on the invitations to the Reception.

ANTI-POLLUTION NEWS

Cheers to the staff of the History Library. They have decided to recycle their waste paper. They have set out boxes for all mixed paper which is recyclable, discarding only the very few kinds of paper which are not.

Recycling centers are located at Kirby IGA and Prospect IGA in Champaign, and Sunnycrest IGA and the recycling center at 2008 N. Lincoln Ave. in Urbana.

If you would like information on which types of paper are recyclable, call Sally Kraska at 367-6923.

EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY COMMITTEE

Four departments are now interviewing clerical learners to fill current vacancies. Both Library Science Library and Photo Lab are replacing learners who previously withdrew from the program. Serials Acquisitions and Binding have each set aside a position to be filled by a trainee from the Affirmative Action Program. In addition, the library has two former learners who have successfully passed various civil service examinations and are now employed on a regular basis. Anyone wishing further information concerning the Affirmative Action Program, please contact Claudia Holt at 3-1055.
Bowling Team

If bowling is your bag, get in touch with J.K. Aikin, UU Library. He’s the captain and star member of this year’s library bowling team. The other regular members include Lucien White, Bob Talmadge, Jack Simon and David O'Bryant. Alternate bowlers are Bill Huff, Bob Brown, Fred Nash and Ed Hess. The faculty bowling league competes once a week, on Wednesday nights, and right now we’re No. 1 in the B Division. If you’d like to sign up as a regular or alternate, call J.K.

Publications

Radio Broadcasts

Several Library staff members will be participating in the series of broadcasts over WILL known as "The University of Illinois Report." They will be reporting on some special aspect of the University Library's resources and services.

The broadcasts are taped and aired over WILL six days a week at 11:55 A.M. They are also broadcast over several other radio stations in the state.

Participants booked so far are Maynard Brichford, Edward Hess, Robert Oram, and Lucien White.

People

Mr. White — attended a meeting of the Illinois State Library Advisory Council in Chicago, September 15 and 16. This group makes recommendations to the Illinois State Library with respect to the spending of ISCA Title I and Title II funds. He has also been named a member of the Joseph W. Lippincott Award Committee, which gives annually a medal and a $1,000 award to some librarian for distinguished service in the library profession.

Mr. Oram — has been named a member of the Clarence Day Award Committee. This award is made annually for any distinctive production, such as a book, essay, or series of lectures or programs which has promoted the love of books and reading.
The Association has received news of the death of Alma De Jordy, retired acquisitions librarian, and of Sylvia Gilmore, retired Browsing Room Librarian.

Mr. Robert White left the Map and Geography Library in June, and now lives at 1001 Caribe, Tucson, Ariz. 85710; Mrs. Claure is in charge now.

Bob Delzell is the new chairman of the ALA Awards Committee. He began his duties after the ALA Conference in Dallas.

Randall DeBruyn rescued six year old Patrick Stevens from a near drowning at Crystal Lake Sunday September 28. DeBruyn was walking in Crystal Lake Sunday when he saw a boy pointing to some bubbles in the lake. Though he can't swim, DeBruyn waded into the lake and pulled out young Patrick. A passer-by administered mouth-to-mouth resuscitation. Patrick was admitted to Carle Foundation Hospital and was listed in good condition.

A new source of library news in Library Office Notes published by the Library Administration Office; Room 222, Library. Look for it in your department; it will appear on an irregular basis.

New academic staff members are once again reminded that it is necessary to enter the University's hospitalization Insurance Program within the first ninety days of employment. Employees should go to the Insurance Office in the basement of Coble Hall for details.

October is United Fund month and once again, there will be a staff member in each department who will be making collections and who will explain what the fund is about. This one annual collection will eliminate about twenty separate collections, and you will have the opportunity to specify where you want your donation to go. Marilyn Satterlee is the keyman who will be coordinating the efforts of the various departments of the Library.

Retired Personnel Librarian Mary L. Bull will be collecting from academic and nonacademic retired employees.
November 3 through 6 are the dates for the Midwest Library Conference, to be held in Chicago at the Sherman House. The ILA will have its official annual convention and meeting on Friday morning, and luncheon Thursday. Delegates from Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Iowa, Missouri and Ohio will attend, and Mr. Goldhor will participate in a panel on Continuing Education. Other special topics include Data Processing, the Unserved Library Public, and Libraries and the Political Process. Preregistration fees will be $10.00; registration at the conference will be $15.00.

For new staff members who may be interested in joining ILA, membership applications may be obtained in the Library Office.

The next exhibit in the Main Library cases in the north-south corridor will be "Microfilm Resources in the University of Illinois Library." It will run from Oct. 1-Oct. 31 and is being prepared by Carl Parmenter.

The wall exhibit from Oct. 1-Oct. 31 will be the "United Nations and its associated agencies." A collection of 28 color posters will commemorate the 26th anniversary of the United Nations. This display is being prepared by Rachel Robinson and Joan Hicks.

New members of the Exhibits Committee for 1971-72 are Sue Cady, Chairman, Dee Wallace, Robert Jones, James Williams, Martha 'andis and Leila Glenn.

"Libraries and Neighborhood Information Centers" is the topic for the 1971 Allerton Conference, to be held Saturday, October 21 to Tuesday, October 27. The program includes prepared papers, informal and panel discussions and problem solving sessions. Library staff members are invited to attend any or all sessions at no charge. Further information and conference schedules may be obtained by writing or calling the Graduate School of Library Science, Division of University Extension, 116 Illini Hall, Champaign, 333-0298.
This year, the Graduate School of Library Science is instituting a new program in continuing education, the "Librarian in Residence." All alumni of the school are eligible for this program. The applicant submits his or her proposed topic for study and the dates he would like to come. If approved, he stays here for two weeks, at which time he has the use of an office and the services of a secretary at no charge. The first librarian to participate in the new program is Mary Jane Carr, BS in Library Science, 1942. She is currently the acquisitions librarian at De Pauw University in Greencastle, Indiana. Miss Carr will be here October 18 through 29 and will be studying "Instruction in the Use of Books in Libraries."

October 18 - Mrs. Evelyn Moore, a doctoral student, Department of Industrial Engineering and Management Sciences, Northwestern University. Mrs. Moore received her MS in Library Science in 1961 at Case Western Reserve University and from 1965 through 1969 was employed at the University of Illinois at Chicago Circle as Science Engineering Librarian. The speaking topic is to be announced.

October 21 - Mrs. Judith Krug, Director, Office for Intellectual Freedom, American Library Association, speaking on "The Intellectual Freedom Program of the AIA."

To raise money for the Berner-Nash Memorial Fund, the doctoral students of the Graduate School of Library Science invite all library and library school faculty and staff, graduate students in Library Science, and local alumni of the School to a party at the Orchard Downs Community Center, 8 p.m., Friday October 15th.

The Berner-Nash Memorial Fund was established in memory of Bill Berner and Bill Nash, both recipients of the Ph.D. in Library Science from the University of Illinois. Both were killed in an automobile accident in the summer of 1970. The families have decided that the Memorial Fund will be used to provide an annual award to a Library Science doctoral student.

Proceeds from a cash bar will go to the fund. If you can't attend the party but would like to contribute, leave a check at the Library Administration Office, Room 222 Library, payable to the University of Illinois Foundation, marked for the Berner-Nash Memorial Fund.

Mr. George S. Bonn joins the faculty this year. Mr. Bonn received his MA in Library Science from the University of Chicago in 1951, has worked at the New York Public Library, the University of Hawaii Library School, and as visiting professor at the University of Delhi (India). He comes here from his last position as Library Consultant, Indian Agricultural Program, Rockefeller Foundation. Bonn, whose publications include numerous books and articles on the literature of science and technology, will be teaching the library science courses on science literature and science reference.

Mrs. Linda Crowe has left the faculty and is now with the library school at Rosary College.

Miss Winifred Linderman retired this year and is currently travelling abroad.

At the awards colloquium on Thursday, May 27, Dean Robert Downs presented the Anne M. Boyd Award to Mr. John Podeschi who, by vote of the faculty, was judged to be outstanding for his interest in and knowledge of books, and the S. Shapiro Awards to Miss Catherine O'Connell and Mr. Norman Flair who were judged by the faculty to have exhibited the greatest potential as librarians.
