Foreword

THE TITLE may seem misleading to the reader of these Letters because no mention is found in them of Chicago, although Thomas Nye had undertaken the journey for the express purpose of visiting Ariel Bowman at Duncklee's Grove, Illinois, and of obtaining the hand of his daughter, Corinna. The marriage was solemnized in Chicago on December 5, 1837, by Rev. Isaac T. Hinton. The next day Thomas Nye and his bride left Chicago in the "stage mail waggon" for Detroit, and the trip to Montreal was continued by boat to Cleveland, and overland along the southern shore of Lake Erie to Buffalo—with an appropriate visit to Niagara Falls—and thence through Rochester, Sodus, Oswego, Pulaski, Watertown, Gouverneur and Ogdensburg.

His visit to Chicago is, however, described in the "diary or journal of dates, expenses & some memorandums & remarks" of the journey, which has fortunately been preserved. The Letters here presented will serve to supplement this Journal.

Thomas Nye was the youngest son of Elias and Elizabeth (Bartlett) Nye. He was born in Carver, Plymouth County, Massachusetts, August 23, 1801; graduated from the University of Vermont in 1822; took up the practice of law in Montreal, Que., after several years of study in the law-office of John Boston, a lawyer of some prominence in Montreal and Lower Canada. Thomas Nye died May 15, 1877, in Montreal, and was buried in the family vault in Glenwood Cemetery, Champlain, New York.

He was a man of considerable learning, a great reader and a close observer. Occasionally, in the few letters which remain, mostly on his legal business, we find such comments and observations as the following:

From Montreal, May 12, 1825, to F. & B. Nye, Odell Town.

I think I shall be able to make you a good visit after June Term is over; I want to go out very much indeed, tho I can't say but that I am becoming a little more naturalized and begin to feel myself a little more at home. I don't believe there was ever a poor fellow who came out of College so much harassed by fears & expectations who had so little to lose or gain and occupied so little space as I—in fact I was a complete Visionary, or Moon Struck. I knew something of the World thro Books but nothing in reality, every thing was System, and whenever any misdirected force came in contact with my Machinery I was out, I was non plussed, I was sick. I am not entirely free yet, but I almost every day feel some of the old strings snap off, and Lord! I feel as much relieved as John Bunyan's Christian did when he felt his Knapsack of Worldly Wisdom dropping off, and I breathe free[e]r after it. I think likely if I could have travelled about a little it would have done me a great deal of Good.

From Montreal, May 30, 1831, to Bartlett Nye, La Cole.

I was at Quebec only about 3 days & am very glad

I went. The weather was rather rough & the season appeared much later towards Quebec.

I liked the ways & manners of the people I saw much better than those of Montreal. I should think them to be much plainer & more civil & polite as far as I saw. I was in many Public Offices & attended the Court of Appeals & think I could perceive that business is very easily transacted at the Public Offices—the Fort and public works I didn't think any very great thing, perhaps the present times in the world influenced my mind—I hate the sight of any thing military, & mine I believe is getting to be the prevailing taste or vice versa.

The Governor is here & to remain some 4 or 5 Weeks I understand. The Bar went to make him their respects in a body at his Levee & I might have gone, but it seems to me a very empty & miserable ceremony not a word being said, but your name announced, a bow & scrape & make way for another—the very extremity & fag end of Aristocracy.

From Montreal, August 30, 1835, to F. & B. Nye, Lacole.

I saw Sir Cha's Edw'd Grey today (Sunday) he looks a big, robust, gruff appearing, Lump of a John Bull Grazer or Cattle Farmer, with broad Hat & exceeding plain (not too fine) Cloathes; I thought Major Wingfield (of 32^d) appeared delicate at toating along the Street with him. He and some Officers of the 3 Vessels of War now at Quebec are gone up to Niagara. I should not have said so much about them but there is so much talk about them.

Pointe Du Chêne or City of Algonac, Michigan,
11 Nov^r 1837 8 ock P.M.
On Board Constellation Stm. B^t from Buffalo.

Just out of Lake St Clair entering St Clair River, Cabin Passengers all playing Cards in Fine Cabin on Deck, Moonlight & Schooner along side about to leave for Detroit. I am going round the Lakes Huron & Michigan being considered far better than over Michigan by Waggons & Stage & bad Roads; pay $30. & found from Buffalo. I have not time to say much, was rather wind bound & waited this Boat at Buffalo 4 days, have had pretty nice weather except great Blow crossing from Oswego to Toronto, & Sunday Buffalo Docks were flooded by a great blow.

I was highly pleased with Cleveland, high & dry like Burlington, saw George Tuttle there & Captⁿ Warner, had most pleasing accounts of Ohio, Geo. & Alex'r are doing finely 60 Miles thence at Manhattan O. he says Ohio is beyond comparison the finest State in the U. S. & from all accounts I should think so certainly, the weather seemed as Warm and fine as August or 1st Sept^r; Buffalo is evidently over-Built on most splendid Scale but may come up to it. I saw *Prentis Law's*² Tavern a little way out of City well furnished & he much improved & called smart very comfortably situated with his wife, boy & Father.

At Detroit met J. Hobart, the Town is quite finely built with Brick & I like it very much. Saw the Legislature then in Session & Young Governor Mason,³ a Kentuckian of a Virginia family, very young looking apparently 23, black hair & fine strong teeth & middling size, a Lawyer appearing about like *Averill*⁴ but much shorter, & smarter eyes, quite prominent or Bee-tle like, anxiously waiting & cannon firing expecting his reelection, but supposed his majority will be very small if elected.

12th, Sunday Morning approaching Palmer, Co. T. St. Clair County, looks well, shores low on both sides since Detroit, & St Clair Lake is shallow with Grass or Weeds growing far into the water in some parts, appears almost as wide as L. Champlain, they threw the Lead very frequently. The Canad'n side is considered rather before Michigan side in soil but does not appear near so well built, the Boat touches no where on the C. side, the soil appears excellent both sides.

Saw the Steam B^t "Thames" coming in through Lake

² Prentis Law was proprietor of the City Hotel, Montreal, in 1833.

³ Stevens T. Mason, first Governor of Michigan, 1836-1840.

St Clair from out the River Thames from Cbatham I believe. There are two extra (old) Captains, Blake & Wagstaff taken on board at Detroit engaged by Mr. Holt a Proprietor who comes to Fort Gratiot, to assist the Voyage round, in case of need. Took 700 b^{shls} Coal at Cleveland at 14 c^{ts} & an immensity of Wood at Algonac, taking all night.

Just saw 4 Wigwams & Lots of Indians & papooses on Michigan side, also on C. side, but ran closer the M. side. They are shooting Ducks w^h abound in the River, with Rifles, will soon be at F't. Gratiot ab^t 85 Miles from Detroit, Mr. Holt will land there & then the Boat proceeds to Mackinac.

Young M^r Livingston a Clerk in A. Fur Co. formerly Clerk at *Gates & Co.*⁵ recognized me & calls me by name from knowing F. & B. Nye he comes from N. York, belongs & is stationed at Sault Ste. Marie on Ste Marie River coming out of Lake Superior into Huron, where Gabriel Franchère the Agent is & I may see him at Mackinac. I know him well, boarded with his Sister, an uncommonly fine man & Successor to Matthews, went round to Oregon, Astoria, by Cape Horn.⁶

It is impossible to write legibly, but you may pick out some part & it is a Letter with a date if nothing more.

The weather has been surprisingly fine to me, & they dont seem to think it at all unusual, but thro Lake Huron comes the Tug & then Lake Michigan, they & L. Su- perior are all 900 ft deep. I probably will see something Curious at Mackinac.

The Boat expected to have met the Indians from Washington at or above Detroit but they have not arrived, I believe, so far.

For curiosity I may send a Letter to R. or Eliza.⁷ I shan't get back by 4th Dec^r, the Witness days, but make up my mind to it, to make the most of it.

If things continue so fine in appearance I am afraid I shall want to come to the Country to live after pushing at the bar for a year or two longer, but must secure land before. I always fancied Indiana & should think that or Ohio most desirable, the Rock River Country in Illinois & Ouisconsin stands foremost now in that direction. It does appear that people get their living easily & those who have been East on business are delighted to return & say they would, knowing what they do, abandon their Eastern properties without compensation rather than be prevented from emigrating & these are hale, sensible, right kind of men; they say they were astonished & would often stand amazed at the facilities in farming. All excellent for farmers, but the state of Society & things must long be unpleasant in a New Country. But strange, everything is as convenient so far in travelling as on Lake Champlain or Hudson River, appears almost as well established on a larger Scale. It is pleasant travelling however I suppose everywhere with money.

They have excellent Horses in Ohio & some Young men coming up from out of Cleveland talking of Hunting & shooting Black & Grey Squirrels reminded me of old times & would please Bartlett.

The effort of travelling so far is nothing, but in returning, if I do over land thro. Michigan will be tough work & possibly all the way home. I suffered more to Lachine & through the infernal Roads from Cascades to Coteau du Lac & Long Sault & seeing the naked stony & Hemlock vicinity of Cornwall than I know can be suffered any where on Land. It was enough to make one cut his throat some would say. And now to think of your Black ground & Sherington Country & the fine hard wood lands in view affords a wonderful contrast besides the difference in Climate which I think must be considerable.

Now we arrive at Fort Gratiot 1 o'ck P.M. no troops here, the Col., McNeil, was here short time since, not a soldier, but the American Flag flying looks fine; I have not seen it I think for 20 years. The Fort is said to be in Beautiful order & it looks well at a little distance.

Yours,

T. Nye

Black River & Village are just before coming to the Fort.

In the second Letter, written after his return to Montreal, Thomas Nye takes up the story of his trip at Fort Gratiot. He does not mention his marriage. Nor does he write anything about Chicago, which seems surprising until we remember that on March 4, 1837, when it became a city—and nine months before Mr. Nye's visit—Chicago had but 4479 inhabitants. It is also curious that no mention is made of the so-called Papineau Rebellion, except in the allusion in the following letter to Dr. Nelson's “political course”.

II

Montreal, 10th Jany. 1838.

Dear Brothers,⁸

I returned on the 28th Dec^r after just 2 months absence and should have written you, but waited a little to learn the state of things and was told by Mr. Burroughs that you were said by Mr. Hubbell to be expected in a few days.

I cannot now write you a full account of my journey but was so highly gratified that I shall wish you to go with me and have a thorough tour through all the Western & South-Western States. Had I been something earlier & had a little more money, or as late as it was the more healthy, I should have run down thro. the Ohio & Mississippi Country. The region is splendid for the poor and the rich farmers to go to & those who have trades probably also, but the comfortably thriving in any traffic, or trades, should remain where they are. The advantageous change to my fancy is South of what in Ohio is the ridge or high land cutting off the Lake

& Northerly Winds which are very piercing & sweep with terrible power over the prairies in Indiana & Illinois particularly and wherever there is exposure. I suffered worse a few days than in our Coldest Winter days, but South of their reach I do believe you may bask in the Sun upon a rich Soil. The Soil is always as fine as can be conceived after 30 or 40 miles above Buffalo every where South and West & the Climate as to warmth can be the only consideration.

The Voyage after leaving Fort Gratiot tossing over Lake Huron a little rough for 100 Miles or so, stopping at Presque Isle, spending part of a day at Michillimacinae Fort & Post within 14 miles of Lake Superior in sight of Drummond's Island, beautiful trout 25 to 30 lbs for 50 c^{ts}, water as clear as the air to a great depth, fine Sunny weather, passing through the Straits, landing on Manitou Islands, passed the Light-Ship stationed in the Strait & the beautifully white Sleeping-Bear Bank even as a Canal Slope 600 feet high, out of sight of land nearly a day at a time in both Lakes, & passing close to the Shore of Ouisconsin touching at Manitouwauk & down apparently in the Sun's face thro. Lake Michigan; all that was delightful.

I have some Stones, & canes cut at some points, & a diary or journal of dates, expenses & some memorandums & remarks. It would be too tedious to write you all; perhaps it is nothing of pecuniary value, but it has been a great treat to me, and I do hope you will not lose another year, if there be anything pleasant in the world and I am convinced there is [a] inconceivably much, which we are losing hourly while so stationary.

I shall continue to lodge at Mr. Whinfield's for a time, till I can locate myself in some snug apartments. Nothing worth remembering of an unpleasant nature occurred to me while gone, & no business has suffered at home as nothing has been done in the Courts in my absence.

The Butter last brought was not sold as you left no price & forbid M^r W. to sell till you should see to it & although much sought for at a good price, 10 or 11 pence, I believe is now down to 8^d, but may rise again. I shall use my judgment when to sell, it is in a good state & M^r W. has taken a cask or two of it. The old is become bad, 3 or 4 Casks remaining, McQueen could not sell the last & will return it. I shall endeavor to attend to it strictly in future as I understand it I think now as well as any one, & shall trust to no one's opinion entirely but my own & not wait for yours any more.

Yours T. Nye

P. S. Should you meet Doct^r *Nelson*⁹ in Champlain, be as useful & polite as you can to him; he was a particular friend of M^r *Bowman's*¹⁰ & of Corinna, who ⁹ Dr. Wolfred Nelson, (1792-1863), served as a surgeon in War of 1812; a leader of the insurgents in the Papineau Rebellion, 1837-38; banished to Bermuda by Lord Durham, released and lived in Plattsburgh, N. Y., until the general amnesty of 1842, when he returned to Montreal. Mayor of Montreal, Inspector of Prisons, and head of the Lower Canada College of Physicians and Surgeons.

¹⁰ Ariel Bowman, a publisher, bookseller and binder of Montreal. Moved to Duncklee's Grove, Ill., and in 1840 to Chicago, where, with his partner, Hugh Ross, he was the earliest book-binder. He died July 3, 1844, aged 58.

A CORRECTION

The possibility that the Dr. Nelson mentioned by Mr. Nye might have been Dr. Robert Nelson, of Montreal, led me to place the matter before the Public Archives of Canada, and through the courtesy of Mr. G. J. Audet I learn that in January, 1838, Dr. Wolfred Nelson, having been taken prisoner after the battle of St. Charles, was in jail in Montreal, while Robert was in the United States; therefore Mr. Nye obviously refers to Dr. Robert Nelson. Mr. Audet kindly furnished me with a sketch, which is condensed into the following foot-note to replace that on page 14:

⁹ Dr. Robert Nelson, (1794-1873), a distinguished doctor of medicine and surgeon, member of the Massachusetts Medical Society. He was a younger brother of Dr. Wolfred Nelson, and was born in Montreal. Represented Montreal-West in the Legislative Assembly from 1827 to 1830 and again from 1834 to 1838. In 1814, when but 20 years of age, was appointed surgeon to the 7th battalion of incorporated militia, (Deschambault's Corps), and later transferred to a regiment called the Indian Warriors and served until the peace. He was one of the chiefs of the Rebellion of 1837-38. Fled to the United States and proclaimed himself the President of the Republic of Lower Canada. Invaded the province (battle of Odelltown) but returned to the States to escape arrest. Lived in California and in New York City, where he practised as a consulting surgeon. Contributed to medical journals; translated Hupeland's system of medicine. Died on Staten Island, New York.

corresponded with M^{rs} Nelson a Very learned & highly accomplished Lady & schollar who has seen the world & Doct^r N. is perhaps the most accomplished Schollar & intelligent & profitable acquaintance that you will ever see in the course of your lives, a great loss had he not been so unfortunate in his political course. T.N.

He knows me pretty well & I think will feel somewhat interested on M^{rs} Nelson's & Corinna's account, or would, were he not so situated, they were expecting to be very intimate in Montreal.
